Stylish and Spacious Mid-Century Modern Luxury

Serenely set at the rear with a Queen Street entrance and masterfully underpinned by clean, considered architectural lines, this super-stylish Mid-Century Modern marvel boasts a sympathetically updated, thoughtfully detailed and beautifully balanced combination of radiant spaces, so close to sand and sea. The understated simplicity of this elegant 2 bedroom townhouse is breathtaking!

Artfully designed by architect Hugh Deacon, grounded by a central floating stairwell over two luxury-led levels, discover the far-reaching, air-conditioned comforts of open-plan living and dining. A stone-finished kitchen showcases high-quality Smeg appliances, a subway-tiled splashback, and the addition of a cafe-style breakfast bar, perfect for settling down with the weekend papers and a lazy latte.

Highlighting timeless design principles throughout, both robed bedrooms are filled with light and generous in size, serviced by a fully renovated bathroom with timber cabinetry and a subway-tiled shower. Instantly shift into relaxation mode in a private and peaceful courtyard featuring more than enough room for a BBQ
