Circa 1864 Victorian Charm in Sensational Central Setting - $1,650,000 Negotiable

Gracefully overflowing with early Victorian substance, integrity and distinctive charm, this double-fronted, double-brick 3 bedroom plus study home offers an affordable launching pad into a tightly held neighbourhood. This landmark property (circa 1864) is the perfect fit for young families and downsizers keen to enter the rewarding Brighton market in a central position of unrivalled convenience.

Anchored by locally quarried ironstone with a timber verandah entry, discover an exquisitely arched, broad hallway branching off to the left and right with all large and light-filled bedrooms zoned to the front of the home. A handy study is also tucked away in this area, taking care of all your home office duties.

Wonderfully open under towering ceilings, a formal living room with an original fireplace is a timeless symphony of space and natural light. A sparkling kitchen has been updated to include a Bosch dishwasher and a relaxed dining area, perfect for casually connecting with family and friends. The easy living is enhanced by a gleaming bathroom with a bath and walk-in shower.

Spill outside to a paved courtyard, facing north and privately set. Perfectly proportioned, this space will be used on a daily basis as a peaceful sanctuary in the warmth of the northern sun. Special features include ducted and panel heating, a large, skylit laundry, compact storeroom, timber floorboards, rear carport parking offering direct courtyard access, and a low-maintenance, established garden with a fernery.

A striking example of early Victorian architecture, the home offers the full complement of period features including ornate open fireplaces, decorative cornices, timber fretwork, soaring ceilings, original slate roof, timber and steel verandah, and an intricate ceiling rose in the hallway.

Metres from Brighton Primary School, this is peerless Bayside living in a sought-after location with trains, dog-friendly William Street Reserve, Firbank and Brighton Grammar all within easy reach. Offering a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, properties of this special character are rarely presented for sale. Inspect with the whole family today!
