Spectacular Resort Living by the Bay

This beautiful family home offers beach side resort living of the highest calibre. From the moment you pass thru the private security gate you enter a world of luxury with architectural features and finishes creating an entertainers paradise. Enjoy entertaining from the ground floor poolside alfresco areas which include a built in outdoor kitchen with BBQ, sink and drinks fridge or head upstairs to the glamorous roof top deck for the stunning sunsets and views over the bay.

In the colder months enjoy the abundance of internal light filled spaces that are designed to view the water features and landscaped gardens. The contemporary kitchen is an entertainers dream with the 6 metre island stone bench, deluxe appliances and a luxurious amount of storage including full feature wine room to make your life easy. The open plan living room is bathed in light and features a lovely open fireplace for the winter nights. Heating and cooling throughout all floors ensures a climate controlled living environment all year round. A full home office with architect designed joinery enjoys private views of the landscaped gardens on the ground floor and could easily provide extra guest accommodation if required.
